WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—Victor L. Berger of Milwaukee, and other socialist leaders, in the supreme court, today won one of the main points upon which they relied for a reversal of their convictions and sentences of twenty years imprisonment for violation of the espionage act.

HARRY BARTON BUYS HOME IN GLENDALE AND WILL ESTABLISH BUSINESS

Glendale is to have another new industry, the Southern California Doughnut Factory, located at 801 North Central avenue. Ovens and four different sizes of dough mixing and shaping machines will be installed this week.

Harry Barton, who will be the manager and principal owner, has bought the beautiful bungalow at 530 North Central avenue that will be finished this week by Nathan Rigdon. He was formerly in the restaurant business in Chicago. Last summer he and his wife and their three children drove out to the coast from that city.

Mr. Barton took his time in looking for a location for his factory and decided that Glendale was the strategic point.

RENTERS SEEK HOMES HERE
There are still many insistent calls, real estate men say, for three and four-room bungalows for renting, but the demand is for a price around $25 to $40 unfurnished and $35 to $50 furnished. Scores of families would locate here within the next few weeks and many of them become permanent renters if such places were available, judging from inquiries and comments heard in The Evening News office.

LINE OF STREET TO BE SURVEYED

OFFICIAL LOCATION OF WEST BROADWAY TO BE FIXED BY ORDER OF CITY

WANT IMPROVEMENT

PAVING OF ROADWAY, ALSO ROUNDING OF ENTRANCE AT BOULEVARD PROPOSED

Surveys necessary to establish the location of West Broadway's center line from Pacific avenue to the San Fernando Road will be made by the city of Glendale at the direction of the board of city trustees, following a recommendation made by T. W. Watson, city manager, and as the result of a meeting held recently by property owners in the district affected.

Property owners on West Broadway, from Pacific to the San Fernando Road, will be asked to give a quit claim deed to the city for street purposes of a plot of ground that would lie thirty feet on either side of the center line to be established by the surveys. It is stated the property owners are willing to do this.

In bringing the matter to the attention of the board of trustees, the city manager declared:

"We have had a number of requests during the last few days from residents and owners of property fronting on that portion of Broadway west of Pacific avenue that is now unimproved that proceedings be taken for the improvement thereof."

"A meeting was held at the residence of George Peters, Jr., 634 West Broadway, Monday evening, the 17th instant, which was attended by twenty or more interested residents and property holders. The discussion brought out that property holders in that vicinity have had considerable difficulty in establishing property lines on account of discrepancy in some of the earlier surveys. According to information furnished us the center line of West Broadway is not definitely fixed and while the city seems to have title to a sixty-foot street there, the exact location thereof cannot be definitely ascertained from present records."

"It was the sense of those present at this meeting that proceedings be taken without delay by the city to establish definitely the location of West Broadway. The desire seemed to be that Broadway, west of Pacific avenue, continue to San Fernando Road in a straight line and that the roadway be forty feet in width throughout, corresponding with the roadway of that portion of the street now improved and that the corners both north and south at San Fernando Road be rounded so as to provide a broad and attractive entrance. Owing to condition of records, stated above, we believe it would be well to disregard former surveys and establish the location at West Broadway and fix the center line thereof as a prolongation of the center line of that portion of the street west of Broadway which is now improved and secure from all parties interested a quit claim deed and to endeavor to secure all necessary signatures thereto."

"I would therefore respectfully request authorization to have the necessary surveys made and to have prepared deed as set forth above. In this connection it would be well to authorize a report from one of the title companies setting forth the signatures necessary to such a deed in order to effect a complete conveyance to the city."

KIDNAPED WOMAN FOUND IN LONELY CABIN

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
LOS ANGELES, Jan. 31.—Mrs. Gladys Witherell, 23-year-old wife and mother, kidnapped last Tuesday from her Hollywood home, was rescued by Los Angeles police and deputy sheriffs, armed with sawed-off shotguns, shortly before day break this morning from a deserted ranch several miles east of Corona, California.

Floyd Carr and Allen Watson Carr, his cousin, were captured and have confessed to the abduction.

Floyd Carr was on guard over the woman in a lonely cabin in a deserted Santa Ana canyon when the officers surrounded the house. Carr fought for five minutes with Detective Al Slaten before he was overpowered. Allen Carr, also known as "Jack," had been arrested here at midnight when he telephoned to the Witherell home, making another demand for $50,000 ransom.

Floyd is declared to have been the "master mind" in the kidnapping. The cousins were inspired by ill feeling toward Mrs. Witherell's father-in-law, Allen Witherell, retired banker.

Floyd Carr lured Mrs. Witherell away from her Hollywood bungalow last Tuesday night by telling her a story of a fake accident. She went with him after he had said that a woman friend had been injured and was calling for her.

She was placed in an automobile, overpowered and choked into unconsciousness. She was taken through the mountains to the hut and held there for five days and six nights.

The abductors planned to arrange that the ransom money be deposited on a lonely mountain road under a red lantern to be provided for the purpose. After the payment of ransom, she was to be released on the roadside so that she could be picked up by friends later.

The meeting between Witherell and his wife was intensely dramatic. She became hysterical. He hurried into the cabin at the heels of officers and husband and wife rushed into each other's arms. She sobbed on his shoulder for several minutes.

As soon as she was returned to her home, Mrs. Witherell snatched her baby, Jackie, 16 months old, from the arms of its grandmother. Mrs. Witherell was on the verge of collapse as a result of her experience. Doctors administered opiates and ordered her put to bed and left undisturbed for several days.

C. OF C. DINNER

ANNUAL BANQUET TO BE HELD TONIGHT AT METHODIST CHURCH, 6:30 O'CLOCK

Reservations for the first annual dinner to be held under the auspices of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, now in the process of reorganization, are being received at the organization's headquarters this morning and J. O. Stevenson, in charge of the reorganization plans, states that about 300 persons have so far signified intention of attending.

The dinner will be held at 6:30 o'clock tonight in the First Methodist church, corner Wilson and Kenwood, and Jesse E. Smith, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Citizens' Campaign committee, will act as chairman of the gathering, with W. E. Evans as toastmaster.

Entire Delegations to Attend
Reservations show that some of the business houses of the city will be represented by the entire list of employees.

The Ford Motor company has made reservation for twenty-five places. The J. A. Newton company will have all of its employees present. The First National bank will be present in full force. Neale & Gregg will have all employees there. Other firms will probably do likewise.

Mr. Stevenson predicts the capacity of the church will be taxed to the limit tonight.

ERNEST OSBORN FIRST MEMBER

Cooper, president of the bank, declares that that institution is 100 per cent for the reorganized Chamber of Commerce.

THIRTY-NINE BUILT

ALMOST TWO SCORE PLACES OF RESIDENCE ERRECTED ON CHILDS TRACT

For years that portion of the Childs tract bounded by Colorado, Adams, Lomita avenue and Glendale avenue has been at a standstill. Not one house a year was added to the few that occupied this beautiful location. But during the past nine or ten months thirty-nine places of residence have been started and most of them completed.

The greater number by far are on the north side of Lomita avenue, though Elk avenue has a very fair share of them. The houses are of all sizes, from one room to ten, though a goodly number are of three or four rooms.

The finest of the thirty-nine is that of Warren Q. and Fern Archer Roberts, which is within five or six weeks of completion. It will have ten rooms and the cost will not miss $12,000 very far.

Third One To Be Built

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts are evidently very much attached to that section as this is the third house they have built in the space of 200 feet frontage on the north side of Elk avenue.

Every one of the thirty-nine houses mentioned that is completed is occupied except two and these are purposely kept vacant so they can be sold.

ANSWER IS GIVEN

REV. FATHER JAMES O'NEILL
DEPRECATES PROPAGANDA
OF VILIFICATION

Rev. Father James S. O'Neill, pastor of The Church of the Holy Family of Glendale, in his sermon yesterday morning deprecated the propaganda of vilification and slander of the Catholic church, which was instigated and fostered by the forces of disorder during the recent presidential campaign.

These enemies of the church, he said, flooded the country with tons of literature calculated to prejudice the minds of non-Catholics against their Catholic neighbors. Such actions Father O'Neill branded as un-American and un-Christian, since they tend to disrupt that state of harmony, peace and good will which is necessary to progress in any community, and to destroy that love of one's neighbor which God's express command lays upon us, regardless of the religious belief or lack of religious belief of that neighbor, and since they constitute such a palpable violation of another divine command:

"Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor."

The Catholic church is, and has always been, the enemy of socialism and every other un-American movement, he said. In reprisal certain forces of disorder, arraying themselves against her, have, by clever deception, led a number of reputable organizations to join them in their warfare against her.

Father O'Neill referred to two bogus quotations which have been read by thousands of subscribers to sectarian, Masonic and anti-Catholic papers, and accepted as truth, but which are now admitted as forgeries even by the enemies of the church. One of these has for years been ascribed to Abraham Lincoln, without the shadow of proof, and without even any attempt at proof, he said. Recently a member of the research department of Nelson's Loose-Lea Encyclopedia wrote the redoubtable Tom Watson, of Georgia, now United States senator, concerning the authenticity of the quotation ascribed to Lincoln.

Letter and Reply Given

This letter and Mr. Watson's reply were published in the Columbus Sentinel of Thompson, Georgia, as follows:

New York City, Nov. 30, 1920.
Hon. Thos. E. Watson.

Dear Sir:
A question has arisen over a quotation upon which I think you will be able to set us right. The question is—did Abraham Lincoln say: "I do not pretend to be a prophet, but, though not a prophet, I see a very dark cloud on our horizon, and that cloud is coming from Rome." Did President Lincoln make or write the above remark? If so, in which of his writings and what edition of the same will I be sure to find it?

Thanking you for whatever information you can give me in this matter, I am
Yours very truly,
WM. A. MYERS.

Reply Is Received
December 11, 1920.

Mr. Wm. A. Myers,
381 Fourth Avenue,
New York City.

Dear Sir:
Yours of November 30 received, and would have been answered sooner had I not been absent in Florida. For the last thirty years, the alleged quotation from Abraham Lincoln has been in circulation.

He is said to have made the prophetic remark during his second term, after the profiteering corporations of the Civil war had accumulated such vast fortunes, and were exerting their power over congress.

I do not remember the alleged name of this friend, but I do distinctly remember that no such letter was ever published.

I had no confidence in it myself, and never used it in any of my speeches or writings.

My opinion is, that it was fabricated after Mr. Lincoln's death, and when, in fact, the existing conditions so thoroughly justified it.

Yours truly,
THOS. E. WATSON.

Paper Never Existed

The other bogus quotation referred to by Father O'Neill is one that has been credited to the National Catholic Register, a paper that never existed. The Kansas City Freeman now repudiates this document and is fair enough to call upon editors of other Masonic papers to do likewise. Several official organs of the Masonic order, such as the "Crescent" of Illinois and the "New Age" of Washington have published this forged document. It remains to be seen whether they will make a retraction, said Father O'Neill.

The following is the repudiation contained in the Kansas City Freeman, under date of December 17, 1920:

"Some of our zealous brethren have seen a certain dirty piece of propaganda purporting to have been printed in the National Catholic Register. You may recall it without our printing it. It condemns Masonry and the Republican party and commends the Democratic party and the Catholic church, and intimates that the Democrats and Catholics are on good terms with each other. This foolish article fell into our hands more than a year ago and since that time it has been mailed to us frequently with the suggestion that Masons ought to see the rank, subtle work being done by the Catholics. We have been pained to see this article printed in some church and Masonic journals. It looked suspicious to us and we delayed printing it until it could be investigated; we never did believe that there was an editor of a Catholic paper who was fool enough to print such an article even though it might have expressed his sentiments. Upon investigation, we were informed that there is no such paper in the world as the National Catholic Register, to which this article was credited. The local Catholic paper made some comments on this article, published several affidavits and an offer was made of $1000 to anybody who would produce a recognized Catholic paper that ever printed that article. We are convinced that this article was written and subtly circulated for some mean propaganda purposes.

"We hope this statement in the Kansas City Freeman will be reprinted by all Masonic papers and that it will stop all of this unnecessary excitement among the brethren."

Unity and Harmony

Father O'Neill touched upon the spirit of unity and harmony that pervaded all American endeavor during the late world war, when all worked shoulder to shoulder—Protestant and Catholic, Jew and Gentile, and those of no religious belief at all—in the trenches or in the camps, in cantonments and Red Cross, all united for a common good and against a common enemy.

He believes this state of unity, of mutual trust and mutual love and service is natural to American people (noted for fair-mindedness), when their conclusions are not drawn from wrong premises furnished them as facts by those who designedly misinform them or by a press which is controlled by certain influences. When facts are given to the people, it is rarely true that all of them can be fooled even occasionally.

MYSTERY SOLVED

BOYS PLAY PRANKS BUT DOG GIVES THEM AWAY; CANINE KNOWS HIS FRIENDS

This is the tale of a dog's tail—and some wags.

A few nights ago a number of boys—and a dog—bent on having some fun, quietly approached residences in a certain section of the city, rang doorbells, then disappeared when the householders answered the summons.

The boys—and the dog—thought it great sport and continued it until time to go home. That's part of the tale. Now here's where the tail comes in.

At one residence the dog accompanied the boys to the door, stood there while they rang the bell and, because the occupants of that particular house had petted him and had otherwise shown him attentions, the canine remained on the doorstep when the boys ran.

Recognizes Old Friend

The occupant of the house, in answer to the boys' ring at the bell, came to the door, turned on the porch light and saw the dog, wagging its tail, on the doorstep.

Naturally, the dog was glad to see his friend. The occupant of the house was glad to see the dog, for the canine told who had rung the bell just as plainly as though he could speak.

That's the way the mystery of the ringing bells in a certain section of the city was solved; that's the tale—and the tail. And in deference to the dog, the names of the boys are not given.
